Re: United States v. Frank James
Criminal Docket No. 22-214 (WFK)

Dear Senior Probation Officer Houlton:

The government writes, pursuant to Rule 32(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure – which provides the parties with 14 days after receiving the Presentence Investigation Report (“PSR”) to file any objections – to inform the U.S. Probation Department (“Probation”) that the government has no objections at this time to the PSR in the above-captioned matter. The government agrees with Probation’s calculation that the defendant’s sentencing Guidelines are life plus 120 months’ imprisonment.

Very truly yours,

BREON PEACE
United States Attorney
Eastern District of New York
